DAVE JEWITT

is a 25-year veteran of the aerospace industry who has found second-half significance helping others make the same transition. Both inside and outside the workplace, Dave has guided hundreds of individuals to discover their one particular purpose and helped launch them into a new era of greater impact for Christ.

Dave's desire is to become a long-term wisdom resource and mentor to those who want to make a difference. For him, the greatest reward is seeing high-capacity people become more effective in all areas of life, and then reproducing their success in the lives of others.

This journey has brought new energy, focus, direction and passion. I've learned in a deeper way that God will leverage my life for His purposes if I trust Him to do so. I am grateful to see Him powerfully work through my life each day.

“Dave has been an incredible resource for helping me to crystallize my understanding of God's unique design for my life.”
—Bill Blankenship

Over the last 30-plus years, Dave has helped hundreds of busy, productive people to:

- Better handle their schedules, careers, roles as spouse/parent and their civic/church activities.
- Gain guidance, wisdom and perspective on the different phases of life.
- Acquire life tools that can significantly improve relationships, personal effectiveness and decision-making.
- Learn to be much more impactful as leaders.

“My life is more pleasing to God because of the influence and mentoring of Dave Jewitt.”
—Ted Turner

Dave has declined offers to write books, conduct seminars and market his ideas on a broad scale, preferring instead to impact deeply one person at a time over a period of time. And to train other coaches/mentors how to guide still more mid-life men and women to their particular purpose in Christ. Dave lives in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma with his wife and two sons.
